

Okaloosa County Department of Corrections

Nolan S. Weeks III, Director of Corrections / Chief

Mission Statement

January 5, 2023

The mission of the Okaloosa Department of Corrections is to protect the public, staff, and inmates through the safe and secure operation of the jail; to provide a safe and positive environment for inmate rehabilitation; and to support the court system.

To fulfill this mission, the department will:

- Operate the jail in accordance with all state and federal laws, regulations, and accreditation standards.
- Provide a safe, secure, and positive environment for inmates, staff, and visitors.
- Offer programs and services that help inmates develop the skills, knowledge, and attitudes needed for successful reintegration into the community.
- Foster partnerships with community organizations to provide support and resources for inmates during and after their incarceration.
- Work collaboratively with other criminal justice agencies to support the efficient and effective operation of the court system.
- Use evidence-based practices and continuous quality improvement to achieve the highest level of efficiency and effectiveness in all departmental operations.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Nolan S. Weeks III", is written over a horizontal line.

Nolan S. Weeks III
Corrections Director | Chief
Okaloosa County Department of Corrections

